Civil Action No. 08 Civ. 7834
(GEL) (DCP)

VERDICT FORM

For each of the eight (8) textbooks, please determine:

(I) whether the Plaintiff proved, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Plaintiff is the owner of a valid United States copyright on the textbook;

(II) whether the Plaintiff proved, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Defendant infringed on the Plaintiff's U.S. copyright on the textbook, by

(a) distributing copies of the copyrighted textbook;
and/or by

(b) importing copies of the copyrighted textbook:

(i) vicariously; and/or

(ii) contributorily.

(III) whether the Plaintiff proved, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Defendant willfully infringed the textbook copyright -- Please note, as the court instructed before, that you cannot find both that the Defendant's infringement was willful and that the Defendant was not aware and had no reason to believe that his acts constituted infringement because a finding of "yes" on both issues would be contradictory;

(IV) whether the Defendant proved, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Defendant was not aware and had no reason to believe that his acts constituted infringement of the textbook copyright -- Again, please note that you cannot find both that the Defendant's infringement was willful and that the Defendant was not aware and had no reason to believe that his acts constituted infringement because a finding of "yes" on both issues would be contradictory; and

(V) the amount of statutory damages, if any, to award the Plaintiff as to infringement of the Plaintiff's U.S. copyright on that particular textbook. Please remember to consult the guidelines on statutory damage awards that the court provided in the jury instructions.

Please complete the form below.
